Pursuant to the local rules of court, specifically E.D. Tenn. LBR 9013–1(f)(4), the moving party and any objecting party are required to attend this hearing. If the moving party or objecting party fails to attend this hearing and the absence has not been excused by the court, the court may conclude that the absent party no longer desires to pursue its motion or objection and at the hearing summarily deny the motion or overrule the objection based on that conclusion. Similarly, the court may deem the failure of any other noticed party to attend the scheduled hearing as a lack of opposition to the granting of the relief requested in the motion.
